

The header comment records the purpose, the database, the preparer, and the checks, and a comment above each query says what it answers. The script continues below the lines shown, 78 lines in all.