

Each point is revenue divided by the list value of the Furniture units invoiced in the month of fiscal 2026. The budget lowered its planned price in September and October; the actual discounts started in September and continued into November and December.