

Blue boxes are the questions a student asks of the data; teal boxes are the feature that answers and the check that proves it worked.