

Read left to right. The gray boxes name where the chapter practices each stage. A test that returns no rows is evidence only if the planted exception would have come back from the same test; the loop is the check on the test itself.