

The query as Exercise 13.1 builds it, with the Queries pane at the left. Outlined: the Changed Type step, whose entry for FreightAmount is the decimal number type, and the FreightAmount header with its icon. The grid is scrolled to its left edge; the columns to the right of FreightAmount are out of view, and the freight of these early invoices is whole dollars (Power Query types a column from its first 200 rows).