Outlined in teal: the proration of the crossing period at the two earlier year-ends, by working days (2 of 9 and 3 of 9). Outlined in coral: the last year-end's estimate, the cost per working day of the eight processed periods times the 13 working days left, and the eight periods it uses. D47 is selected. A long label is cut at its column's edge, as Excel shows it.
