

Security
UserPrincipalName
CostCenterID

Not related to any table; the rules read it, and its own rule shows each user only their rows.

Each rule filters its table and, through active relationships, the fact tables on the many side. A page shows only the rows its reader may see: the Income Statement of a department manager is that department's alone, and nothing on the page says so unless a card names the cost centers shown.