

Blue boxes are what the student sees; teal boxes are the usual cause, the check that confirms it and where the chapter practices it. None of the six stops the query with an error: each runs and returns a result, which is why the check is a comparison with what the result should be.