

Each point is revenue divided by the list value of the Furniture units invoiced in the month of fiscal 2026. The budget lowered its planned price in September and October; the large autumn discounts began in September and continued into November and December, and smaller discounts appear earlier in the year.