

Each section is built from the requirements named beside it, and each exhibit is a visual of the report page named beside it, made in the requirement that owns that page. The auditing section rests on Requirement 5's reconciliations and on the controls of Requirement 1's own pages, Validation and About. The opening is written once the rest is known, and the recommendation rests on Requirements 2 to 5. Block heights are schematic.